How do you measure how well a school is doing? In our estimation, it’s more than scores on high-stakes tests. Schools should show that they are supporting children along the educational pipeline toward college, career, and community readiness. Are our students attending school? Are they graduating? Are they going to college? And how successfully are schools reducing the achievement gap between high-needs and non-high needs students?

The Strive HI Performance System was designed to account for these factors in student success. Initially created in 2013 by a U.S. Department of Education waiver from certain aspects of the former No Child Left Behind Act, Strive HI has been refocused by the goals and priorities of the 2017-2020 Department of Education and Board of Education Strategic Plan, the governing document for the public education system. Our Strategic Plan provides a common foundation of expectations and supports for public education, centering on closing the achievement gap to ensure equity and excellence in our schools.

Kahakai Elementary
76-147 Royal Poinciana Drive, Kailua-Kona, Hawaii | Hawaii | Honokaa-Kealakehe-Kohala-Konawaena Complex Area

Our Story
The West Hawaii Complex Area has designated Kahakai Elementary as an official science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) school for its advancements in science, technology, engineering and math.

The school has made investments in technology in the form of handheld computers, laptop computers, digiscopes, and iPads are used daily in all grades.

Parent involvement has continued to grow, and the school has promoted exchange programs with schools from Japan and Canada.

The Strategic Plan
The Strategic Plan describes shared objectives for equity and excellence for every child. To measure progress on the Strategic Plan, we report on key statewide success indicators. These indicators represent the health of public education, focusing on those which have greatest impact on student success, as well as state and federal requirements. They do not comprehensively represent the diverse measures of success valued by our nearly 300 schools. Schools address their unique approach to indicators through their Academic and Financial Plans and charter school contracts. Learn more at http://bit.ly/1WggQrL
