How do you measure how well a school is doing? In our estimation, it's more than scores on high-stakes tests. Schools should show that they are supporting children along the educational pipeline toward college, career, and community readiness. Are our students attending school? Are they graduating? Are they going to college? And how successfully are schools reducing the achievement gap between high-needs and non-high needs students?

The Strive HI Performance System was designed to account for these factors in student success. Initially created in 2013 by a U.S. Department of Education waiver from certain aspects of the former No Child Left Behind Act, Strive HI has been refocused by the goals and priorities of the 2017-2020 Department of Education and Board of Education Strategic Plan, the governing document for the public education system.

Kapa'a High

4695 Mailihuna Road, Kapaa, Hawaii | Kauai | Kapaa-Kauai-Waimea Complex Area

Our Story

Kapaa High has smaller learning communities for all grade levels, including two freshmen hui, allowing a core group of teachers to serve common students. The initiative has led to improvements in a number of areas, including student attendance rates, academic growth, increased percentages of students promoted to grade 10 and a dramatic drop in discipline incidents. The focus of education here is stronger relationships, relevance and rigor.

The bell schedule provides additional support for students to meet diploma requirements and take credit acceleration and recovery courses. The new schedule also allows teachers to collaborate and receive strategic professional development.

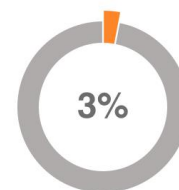

Kapaa High continues to communicate and work closely with feeder schools to build a strong K-12 alignment.
