Item/Task Notes:
How this item/task contributes to the sufficient evidence for this claim:	To complete this task, students must write an appropriate response and cite evidence to support an inference about a character in a literary text.
Target-Specific Attributes (e.g., accessibility issues):	Stimulus text should be on grade level. For CRs, students will be required to enter text using a keyboard; hearing- or vision-impaired students may need alternate formats or support.

Stimulus Text:

Read this text and then answer the prompt that follows it.

The Little Captive
from Wide Awake Stories

"Did you think you could get him? You can't, if you try ever so hard," said little Bessie to her dog Carlo, as he sat by her side on the grass, one fine summer's day. As she spoke, she held high above her head a dear little robin.

An hour before, while walking in the fields, she saw Carlo in the distance, playing with something upon the ground. On coming nearer, it proved to be a nest with one poor little bird in it. Taking the bird away from the dog, she seated herself upon the ground to smooth the little creature's feathers, and calm its fear.

After placing it in the nest, and covering it with her handkerchief, she took it home, put it in a cage, and gave it some food, which the bird seemed very glad to eat.

The next morning, Bessie arose very early, to see that her little charge was all right, and to give it some breakfast. She took very faithful care of it for several weeks, and by that time it became strong, and could fly. Every morning it tried to sing, as if in gratitude for what Bessie had done for it.

One day Bessie's mother said to her that she must open the cage, and let the bird fly away. "No, no, mother!" said Bessie, "don't say so. I take such comfort in him, I can't let him go." But the next moment she remembered how unhappy it made her to disobey her mother; and, taking the cage, she opened the door.

To her great surprise, her little captive did not care to take the freedom offered him. After a while he seemed to understand that he was expected to come out of the cage; and what do you think was the first thing that the little bird did? Why, he lighted right on Bessie's shoulder, as if he hated to leave her.

Item Prompt:

The author shows that Bessie is a caring person. Write a paragraph telling how Bessie is caring. Use specific details from the story to support your answer.

Scoring Rubric
3	The response: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>gives sufficient evidence of the ability to use supporting evidence to interpret and explain inferences about a character</li> <li>includes specific explanations that make reference to the text</li> <li>fully supports the inferences with clearly relevant details from the text</li> </ul>

1	The response: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>gives limited evidence of the ability to use supporting evidence to interpret and explain inferences about a character</li> <li>includes specific explanations but they are not explicit or make only vague references to the text</li> <li>supports the inferences with at least one detail but the relevance of that detail to the text must be inferred</li> </ul>
0	A response gets no credit if it provides no evidence of the ability to use supporting evidence to interpret and explain inferences about a character and includes no relevant information from the text.

Scoring Notes:

Response may include, but is not limited to, Bessie is a very caring person, and she demonstrates this trait in many ways throughout the text. At the beginning of the excerpt, she holds the robin high above her head to keep her dog from causing it more harm. When she first locates the bird, she smooths its feathers and tries to calm its fears. She places the bird in the nest and covers it with her handkerchief to protect it and keep it warm. Once home, she puts the bird in a safe place (cage), and gives it much-needed food. Bessie continues to nurse the bird back to health for several weeks. During that time, the bird becomes strong and can fly again. Finally, when Bessie's mother tells Bessie that she must let the bird go and Bessie protests, it is Bessie's caring and respect for her mother that has her obey her mother's instructions.

Score Point 3 Sample:

Bessie is a caring person, and she demonstrates this trait in the text. First, she finds a bird and takes it home to care for it. She puts it in a cage and feeds it. She nurses the bird back to health for several weeks until she finally obeys her mother and lets the bird go. Bessie knows she must let the bird go because she cares about the bird's happiness.

Score Point 2 Sample:

Bessie is a caring person. She finds a bird and puts it in a cage where she feeds and cares for it for several weeks. Then she lets the bird go.

Score Point 1 Sample: Bessie is a caring person. She takes a bird home and cares for it.

Score Point 0 Sample: Bessie is a caring person. She is nice.

Stimulus Text:

Read the passage and answer the question that follows it.

The Old Lion and the Fox

An old Lion had teeth and claws that were worn. So it was not so easy for him to get food as in his younger days. He pretended that he was sick. He took care to let all his neighbors know about it. He then lay down in his cave to wait for visitors. And when they came to offer him their sympathy, he ate them up one by one.

The Fox came too, but he was very cautious about it. He stood at a safe distance from the cave. He asked politely about the Lion's health. The Lion replied that he was very ill indeed. He asked the Fox to step in for a moment. But Master Fox very wisely stayed outside, and thanked the Lion very kindly for the invitation.

"I should be glad to do as you ask," he added. "But I have noticed that there are many footprints leading in. There are no footprints coming out of your cave. Tell me how your visitors find their way out again."

Item Stem:

Which sentence from the story tells Fox that Lion wants to hurt him?

Options:

- A. An old lion had teeth and claws that were worn.
- B. He then lay down in his cave to wait for visitors.
- C. But Master Fox very wisely stayed outside, and thanked the Lion very kindly for the invitation.

D. There are no footprints coming out of your cave.

Distractor Analysis:

- A. INCORRECT: This sentence from the story is a detail about the lion, but it does not imply bad intent.
- B. INCORRECT: This sentence from the story is a detail about what the lion did, but it does not imply bad intent about the lion.
- C. INCORRECT: This sentence from the story is a detail about what the fox did, but it does not give information that explains how the fox knew the lion's bad intent.
- D. CORRECT: This sentence from the story is the detail that the fox used to explain how he knew the lion wanted to hurt him.

*Stimulus Text:The Wolf and the Goat

A hungry wolf spied a goat at the top of a steep cliff where he could not possibly get at her.

"That is a very dangerous place for you," he called out, pretending to be very anxious about the goat's safety. "What if you should fall? Please listen to me and come down! Here you can get all you want of the finest grass in the country."

The goat looked over the edge of the cliff.

"How very, very anxious you are about me," she said, "and how kind you are with your grass! But I know you! It's your own food you are thinking of, not mine!"

Item Stem:

What does the word anxious mean in the text?

Options:

- A. selfish
- B. hungry
- C. hopeful
- D. worried

Distractor Analysis:

- A. INCORRECT: "Selfish" might be chosen because the wolf in the text is selfishly trying to get the goat, but "selfish" does not make sense in the context of the two sentences in which the target word is used.
- B. INCORRECT: "Hungry" might be chosen because the wolf in the text wants to eat the goat, but "hungry" does not make sense in the context of the two sentences in which the target word is used.
- C. INCORRECT: "Hopeful" might be chosen because the wolf in the text is hopeful that he will get the goat, but "hopeful" does not make sense in the context of the two sentences in which the target word is used.
- D. CORRECT: "Worried" has the same meaning as "anxious" and makes sense in the context of both sentences in which the target word is used.

Target-Specific Attributes (e.g., accessibility issues):

Stimulus Text:

Read the poem about the moon and nighttime and then answer the question.

The Moon

The moon has a face like the clock in the hall;
 She shines on thieves on the garden wall,
 On streets and fields and harbor quays*,
 And birdies asleep in the forks of the trees.
 The squalling cat and the squeaking mouse,

The howling dog by the door of the house,
The bat that lies in bed at noon,
All love to be out by the light of the moon.
But all of the things that belong to the day
Cuddle to sleep to be out of her way;
And flowers and children close their eyes
Till up in the morning the sun shall arise.

**quay: a structure like a dock built by water*

Item Stem:

Read the first line from the poem.

The moon has a face like the clock in the hall;

What is the meaning of the simile used in this line?

Options:

- A. The moon ticks like a clock.
- B. The moon is facing the hall.
- C. The moon is as round as a clock.
- D. The moon moves around the hall.

Distractor Analysis:

- A. Students who select this answer are likely thinking about the clock ticking.
- B. Students who select this answer do not understand the context of the poem.
- C. Key: This is the correct answer because the moon is being compared to the shape of a clock.
- D. Students who select this answer do not understand the context of the poem.

*Stimulus Text:Project Mercury

Project Mercury was a NASA program. It launched the first Americans into space. Astronauts made six flights during the Mercury project. Two of those went to space and came right back down. Four of them went into orbit and circled Earth.

NASA chose seven astronauts for Project Mercury in 1959. It was one of the first things NASA did. NASA was only six months old.

Before astronauts flew, NASA had test flights. People were not on these launches. The flights let NASA find and fix problems. The first Atlas rocket that launched with a Mercury capsule exploded. The first Mercury-Redstone launch only went about four inches off the ground. NASA learned from these problems. NASA learned how to fix them. NASA made the rockets safer. Three other "astronauts" also helped make Mercury safer. A rhesus monkey, Sam, and two chimpanzees, Ham and Enos, flew in Mercury capsules. Enos even made two orbits around Earth.

NASA learned a lot from Project Mercury. NASA learned how to put people in orbit. It learned how people could live and work in space. NASA learned how to fly a spacecraft. These lessons were very important. NASA used them in later space projects.

Stimulus Text:

Read the passage and answer the question that follows it.

King of the Planets

Jupiter is the fifth planet from our sun. It is named for the king of ancient Roman gods. It is the biggest planet in our solar system. More than 1300 Earths could fit inside it.

This is not a nice place to visit. It is a giant ball of gas. There is nowhere to land. Any spacecraft -- or person -- passing through the colorful clouds would get crushed and melted. Remember how your head feels squeezed when you dive into the deep end of a pool? That is pressure. On Jupiter, the pressure is so strong it squishes gas into liquid. Jupiter's atmosphere can crush a metal spaceship like a paper cup.

- B. deep
- C. force
- D. strong

Distractor Analysis:

- A. INCORRECT: The word "gas" is in the passage, but the context does not support it as the meaning of the word "pressure."
- B. INCORRECT: The passage mentions the "deep" end of a pool, but the context does not support it as the meaning of the word "pressure."
- C. CORRECT: The context of the passage clarifies that "pressure" is force by giving examples of it: head feels squeezed, squishes gas into liquid, and crush a metal spaceship.
- D. INCORRECT: The word "strong" can be a descriptor for the degree of pressure, but the context does not support it as the meaning of the word "pressure."

The Fox as Herdsman

Once upon a time, there was a woman who went out to hire a herdsman to watch her goats, sheep, and cows. On her way to find a herdsman she met a bear.

"Where are you going?" asked the bear.

"I'm going to hire a herdsman," answered the woman.

"Why not have me for a herdsman?" said the bear.

"Well, why not," said the woman, "if you only know how to call the flock. Let me hear you."

"Ow, Ow!" growled the bear.

"No, no! That will not do," said the woman. She went on her way.

When she had gone a little farther she met a wolf.

"Where are you going?" asked the wolf.

"I'm going to hire a herdsman," said the woman.

"Why not have me for a herdsman?" said the wolf.

"Well, why not, if you can call the flock. Let me hear you call," said the woman.

"Oooo, Oooo!" howled the wolf.

"Oh no, that will not do," said the woman, and she continued walking.

After she had gone on a while longer she met a fox.

"Where are you going?" asked the fox.

"I'm just going out to hire a herdsman," answered the woman.

"Why not have me for a herdsman?" asked the fox.

"Well, do you know how to call the flock?" asked the woman.

"Dil-dal-holom!" sang out the fox in a fine clear voice.

"That's perfect!" said the woman. "I'll have you for my herdsman." She sent the fox to herd her flock, and then she returned home.

The first day the fox was herdsman, he ate up all the woman's goats, the next day he made an end of all her sheep, and the third day he ate up all her cows. When he came home that day the woman asked what he had done with all her flocks.

"Oh!" said the fox, "they are playing in the meadow over the hill."

The woman was busy churning cream when he said this, but she thought she had better go and have a look at her flock.

Item Prompt:

Write an ending for the story that tells what the characters say and describes the actions and events.

Scoring Notes:

The Response may include, but is not limited to:

The woman waited until the fox had left. She walked down to the meadow where the fox told her the animals were playing, but they were gone. She felt sad because she realized now that she shouldn't have trusted a sneaky fox to watch her animals.

How this item/task contributes to the sufficient evidence for this claim:	To complete this task, students must write and support an opinion, organize supporting reasons, and provide an appropriate conclusion.
Target-Specific Attributes (e.g., accessibility issues):	Stimulus should be on grade level. For CRs, students will be required to enter text using a keyboard.

Stimulus Text:

Read the paragraph and complete the task that follows it.

Children should choose their own bedtime. There are things to do, and most have homework. Some people need more sleep, but children like talking to friends. The time to go to bed should be children's decision when they are tired they go to bed earlier. There are activities to go to, so children learn to be responsible.

Item Prompt:

Rewrite the paragraph by organizing it correctly and adding ideas that support the opinion that is given.

Scoring Notes:

The Response may include, but is not limited to:
 I think children should be allowed to choose their own bedtime. Children need a way to learn how to be responsible. Picking a bedtime is a good way to become more responsible. Children should think about the activities they have to do and how much homework they have when deciding what time to go to bed. Thinking about these things when deciding on a bedtime shows responsibility. Also, some people need more sleep than others, so this is something children can think about when they choose a bedtime. Making good choices helps children to be more responsible.

Many people said he planted apple seeds everywhere he went. Appleseed knew the seeds he planted would grow to be an apple orchard. And, all the pioneers would have apples to eat. Johnny Appleseed was a gentle and kind man. He gave seeds to the pioneers and they planted them. His real name was John Chapman, but the people named him Johnny Appleseed because he always gave apple seeds. Appleseed is an American folk hero because he loved apple seeds and apple trees. Narrative 2: Paul Bunyan and his Blue Ox Babe Paul Bunyan was a giant and strong lumberjack. He had a huge blue ox named Babe. It was said that Bunyan was seven feet tall and able to do any lumber job in the country. He was able to cut the trees of whole forests with one sweep of his axe. Some lumberjacks told stories about how Bunyan logged all the timber from the large state of North Dakota. Now a story would not be complete without Bunyan's ox. One might ask why Babe was blue. The story started one fine winter. The snow was blue for seven days. Babe rested in the blue snow and then his fur was blue instead of white. Babe was also very large and strong. Other lumberjacks were so amazed because Babe weighed ten thousand pounds and had the strength of nine horses. It was no wonder that Bunyan and Babe were known to pull

	large houses up mountains and down to the valleys with only drops of sweat. Together they helped people haul logs or chopped trees to give a hand around the logging camps. Both were happiest in the woods with plenty of trees. They tried to stay close to the river so they could cut the trees and drop them in the river. And, down the river the logs floated to the mill. And so, Paul Bunyan and Babe became larger than life American folk heroes of our country. Article 1: Brief informational article (300 words or less) describing the genre of tall tales. The article will discuss tall tales as stories of ordinary people presented in extraordinary ways, that is, made "larger than life." The article will also classify tall tales by various types and also discuss their unique roll in diverse cultures.

Task Notes:
Task Overview (105 total minutes):          Title: Tall Tale Narratives  Part 1 (35 minutes): Ultimately tasked with writing a narrative, students will independently read two tall tales and an informational article about tall tales, taking notes on these sources. They will then respond to several questions about these sources, addressing the research skills of analyzing and evaluating information.  Part 2 (70 minutes): Students will work individually to plan, write, and revise a narrative of a tall tale character that has super-human abilities or an extraordinary story to tell.  Scorable Products: Student responses to the selected-response and constructed-response questions and the narrative will be scored.
Teacher preparation / Resource requirements          The teacher should assure that sufficient blank paper and writing utensils are available for student note taking. Teacher should conduct standard preparation, registration, etc., for computer-based testing. The testing software will include access to spell check, but not to grammar check.
Teacher Directions:          Students are given the texts, research, and any additional information about the essay. Part 1 (35 minutes) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Initiate the online testing session testing session.</li> <li>• Alert the students when 15 minutes have elapsed.</li> <li>• Alert the students when there are 5 minutes remaining in the session.</li> <li>• Make sure the students have put their names on any notes.</li> </ul> Stretch Break Part 2 (70 minutes) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Initiate the testing part 2</li> <li>• Allow students to access the sources and their answers to the constructed response questions presented in part 1. Pre-Task Activity:

There are no specific pre-task activities to be conducted.

Time Requirements:

The Performance Task will take 105 minutes in one session.

Student Directions:

Part 1 (35 minutes)

Your assignment:

You will read two tall tales, then read an informational article about tall tales, taking notes on all of these sources. Then, you will answer several questions about these materials and write your own full-length tall tale.

Steps you will be following:

In order to plan and write your story, you will do all of the following:

1. Read two tall tales and an informational article.
2. Answer several questions about the sources.
3. Plan, revise, and write a tall tale.

Directions for beginning:

You will now read two tall tales and one article. Take notes because you may want to refer to your notes while writing your tall tale. You can refer to any of the sources as often as you like. Your notes and sources will be your basis for writing your final draft.

(tall tale 1)

(tall tale 2)

(informational article)

Questions

Use the remaining time to answer the questions below. Your answers to these questions will be scored. Also, they will help you think about the sources you've read, which should help you write your tall tale. You may click on the appropriate buttons to refer to the sources when you think it would be helpful. You may also refer to your notes. Answer the questions in the spaces provided below them.

1. Based on the information in the article and the tall tale of Johnny Appleseed, Johnny Appleseed can be called an American folk hero because he
  - A. knew how to start an apple orchard
  - B. ate many apples when he walked the country
  - C. planted and gave apple seeds
  - D. used a cooking pot to gather apple seeds
2. Based on the two tall tales, what do Johnny Appleseed and Paul Bunyan have in common?
  - A. They take good care of their farm animals.
  - B. They are well known for helping people.
  - C. They are physically very strong.
  - D. They enjoy eating fruits.
3. What do the tales of Johnny Appleseed and Paul Bunyan have in common with the types of tall tales well known in other countries? Support your answer with details from the informational article and the two tall tales.

Part 2 (70 minutes)

You will now have 70 minutes to review your notes and sources, plan, draft, and revise your tall tale. While you may use your notes and refer to the sources, you must work on your own. You may also refer to the answers you wrote to earlier questions, but you cannot change those answers. Now read your assignment and the information about how your essay will be scored, and then begin your work.

Your Assignment

The two narratives you read were tall tales about American folk heroes. Johnny Appleseed and Paul Bunyan are larger than life characters with exaggerated facts or statements about them. Write a short tall tale involving a character who has larger-than life abilities or an extraordinary story to tell. Remember to include narrative strategies like dialogues, descriptions, characters, plot, setting, and closure.

How your essay will be scored: The people scoring your essay will be assigning scores for

- 1. Narrative focus—how well you maintain your focus, and establish a setting, narrator and or characters
- 2. Organization – how well the events logically flow from beginning to end using effective transitions and how well you stay on topic throughout the essay
- 3. Elaboration of narrative – how well you elaborate with details, dialogue, and description to advance the story or illustrate the experience
- 4. Language and Vocabulary – how well you effectively express experiences or events using sensory, concrete, and figurative language that is appropriate for your purpose
- 5. Conventions – how well you follow the rules of grammar, usage, and mechanics (spelling, punctuation, capitalization, etc.)

Now begin work on your narrative. Manage your time carefully so that you can:

- plan your narrative
- write your narrative
- revise and edit for a final draft

Word-processing tools, including spell check, are available to you.

- Alert students when there are 15 minutes remaining and suggest they begin revising their essays.
- Alert the students when there are 5 minutes remaining in the session.
- Close the testing session.

Pre-Task Activity:

There are no specific pre-task activities to be conducted.

Time Requirements:

The Performance Task will take 120 minutes in one session.

Student Directions:

Part 1 (35 minutes)

Your assignment:

You will watch an informational video about brushing your teeth and read two articles about dental health, taking notes on these sources, and then write an informational essay about dental health.

Steps you will be following:

In order to plan and compose your essay, you will do all of the following:

1. Read two articles and watch a video.
2. Answer three questions about the sources.
3. Plan and write your essay.

Directions for beginning:

You will now watch one video and read two articles. Take notes because you may want to refer to your notes while writing your essay. You can look at any of the sources as often as you like.

(source 1)

(source 2)

Questions

Use the remaining time to answer the questions below. Your answers to these questions will be scored. Also, they will help you think about the sources you've read and viewed, which should help you write your essay. You may click on the appropriate buttons to refer to the sources when you think it would be helpful. You may also refer to your notes. Answer the questions in the spaces provided below them.

1. According to the video and the articles, what are the most important steps in taking care of your teeth? Use details from the sources to support your answer.
2. Explain why both the video and the articles help you understand how to care for your teeth. Use details from the sources to support your answer.

3. What do you think is the most important thing to do to keep your teeth healthy? Use details from the sources to support your answer.

Part 2 (70 minutes)

You will now have 70 minutes to review your notes and sources, plan, draft, and revise your essay. While you may use your notes and refer to the sources, you must work on your own. You may also refer to the answers you wrote to earlier questions, but you cannot change those answers. Now read your assignment and the information about how your essay will be scored, and then begin your work.

Your Assignment

Write an informational essay explaining what a person should do to have good dental health. Include details from the video and articles to support your ideas.

How your essay will be scored: The people scoring your essay will be assigning scores for

- 1. *Statement of Purpose/Focus—how well you clearly state and maintain your controlling idea or main idea
- 2. *Organization – how well the ideas progress from the introduction to the conclusion using effective transitions and how well you stay on topic throughout the essay
- 3. *Elaboration of Evidence – how well you provide evidence from sources about your topic and elaborate with specific information
- 4. *Language and Vocabulary – how well you effectively express ideas using precise language that is appropriate for your audience and purpose
- 5. *Conventions – how well you follow the rules of usage, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling.

Now begin work on your essay. Manage your time carefully so that you can:

- plan your essay
- write your essay
- revise and edit for a final draft

Word-processing tools and spell check function are available to you.

Questions

Use the remaining time to answer the questions below. Your answers to these questions will be scored. Also, they will help you think about the sources you've read, which should help you write your essay. You may click on the appropriate buttons to refer to the sources when you think it would be helpful. You may also refer to your notes. Answer the questions in the spaces provided below them.

1. What is one disadvantage of learning from a private tutor instead of in a public school that is presented in both the video and the article? Support your answer using details from the video and the article.
2. Describe what the video and the article say about the effects of child stars traveling often. Explain your answer with details from both sources.
3. The actor and musician have each had positive and negative experiences as the result of being famous. What are the positive experiences that are presented in both the video and the article? Select all the answers that are common to both children.

Part 2 (70 minutes)

You will now have 70 minutes to review your notes and sources, plan, draft, and revise your essay. You may also refer to the answers you wrote in part 1, but you cannot change those answers. Now read your assignment and the information about how your essay will be scored, and then begin your work.

Your Assignment

Your best friend told you that he/she wants to be a famous movie actor. To help reach this goal, your friend is eager to begin starring in commercials so that he/she can eventually get a role in a movie. Write an essay in which you state your opinion on whether you think it is good or bad to be famous at a young age. Use evidence from the video and the article to help support your opinion on the topic.

How your essay will be scored: The people scoring your essay will be assigning scores for

1. Statement of purpose/focus—how well you clearly state

your opinions on the topic and maintain your focus

2. Organization – how well your ideas logically flow from the introduction to conclusion using effective transitions and how well you stay on topic throughout the essay

3. Elaboration of evidence – how well you provide evidence from sources about your opinions and elaborate with specific information

4. Language and Vocabulary – how well you effectively express ideas using precise language that is appropriate for your audience and purpose

5. Conventions – how well you follow the rules of usage, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling

Now begin work on your essay. Manage your time carefully so that you can:

- plan your essay

Birds Make Good Pets

There are many reasons why people keep birds as pets. Canaries sing beautiful songs. Parakeets will sit on your shoulder. Parrots can talk to you. Birds fly outdoors. Pet birds can be fun.

Item Stem:

A student is revising this paragraph and needs to take out information that does not support why birds make good pets. Which of the following sentences does not support why birds make good pets?

Options:

- A. "Canaries sing beautiful songs."
- B. "Parakeets will sit on your shoulder."
- C. "Parrots can talk to you."
- D. "Birds fly outdoors."

Distractor Analysis:

- A. Incorrect: This sentence gives a reason why someone might want a bird as a pet.
- B. Incorrect: This sentence gives a reason why someone might want a bird as a pet.
- C. Incorrect: This sentence gives a reason why someone might want a bird as a pet.
- D. Correct: This sentence states a fact about birds. It does not give a reason why someone would want a bird as a pet.

*Stimulus Text:How Laws Are Made*What is a Law?

So what is a law? Well, picture your family sitting down to play a board game. You need to know the rules in order to play, right? The same thing goes for your day-to-day life -- you need to know the rules or laws. Every country has its own set of laws and each is unique to that country. For example, in the United States, the law says we drive on the right-hand side of the road. In England, on the other hand, their law states they drive on the left. You could really do some damage if you didn't know that law and started driving on the wrong side of the road!

Who Makes Laws?

Now that we know what a law is, who makes the laws? Well, laws can be made by the national government or by individual state governments. National laws are those laws that everyone in the country must follow. Laws made by individual states are only good in that state.

National laws are made in Congress, which is part of the legislative branch and is made up of the House of Representatives and the Senate. Congress can make laws on all kinds of matters, such as setting speed limits on highways or regulating how much radon may be found in drinking water. During each Congress, which lasts two years, senators and representatives introduce about 10,000 bills. During that time, about 650 bills are passed by Congress and then signed into law by the president.

Item Stem:

Read this sentence from Paragraph 1.

You could really do some damage if you didn't know that law and started driving on the wrong side of the road!

Which phrase would replace the words "really do some damage" with more specific language?

Options:

A. drive poorly

B. create confusion

C. injure people

D. get in the way

Distractor Analysis:

- A. Although a driver on the wrong side of the road is an example of driving poorly, the phrase is not specific enough to be the best replacement for “really do some damage.”
- B. Although a driver on the wrong side of the road could cause confusion, the phrase “create confusion” does not create the same impact as “really do some damage,” nor is it specific.
- C. KEY: The phrase “injure people” is a more specific replacement for the words “really do some damage” because it indicates the kinds of damage a driver who doesn’t know the law could cause by driving on the wrong side of the road.
- D. Although a driver on the wrong side of the road could “get in the way” of other drivers, this phrase does not have the same meaning as “really do some damage.”

Opportunities at the Hull House

Jane Addams's Hull House offered many programs to the Chicago community, even music lessons. Solomon Saranoff lived near Hull House. He was the son of Russian immigrants. His father worked for a rag shop for $8 a week. "Solly," as he was called, wanted to learn to play the piano, but his family had no extra money to buy one, much less pay for lessons. One day, friends of Solly and his sister, Rosie, took them to Hull House, where, guess what? There was a piano!

Can you imagine how excited Solly was when he saw the instrument? Although he had dreamed of playing one, he had never even been near a piano before. He struck a note and was thrilled with the sound. He played a few more notes. When a director of Hull House entered the room, she asked Solly if he wanted to learn to play. "Oh yes! Could I?" he asked eagerly.

Solly took piano lessons at Hull House, while his parents learned to speak English in the language class. During a Hull House party, many family met Jane Addams. Solly's father told Jane that he had never heard his son play the piano. "Well, that is too bad," Addams said. "I must see that you hear him soon." A week later, Solly brought home a card announcing his piano recital at the Hull House Music School. At the concert, tears rolled down Solly's father's face as he heard his son play. The teacher proclaimed, "I think Solly will be a great musician."

Item Stem:

Read this sentence in Paragraph 3.

During a Hull House party, many family met Jane Addams. Solly's father told Jane that he had never heard his son play the piano.

What is the plural of the underlined word?

Options:

- A. familys
- B. familes
- C. families
- D. famillies

Distractor Analysis:

- A. Adding "-s" to a noun ending in "-y" creates a misspelled plural.
- B. Removing "-y" and adding "-es" creates a misspelled plural.
- C. KEY: Removing "-y" and adding "-ies" to a noun ending in "-y" makes a correctly spelled plural.
- D. Doubling the last consonant, removing "-y," and adding "-ies" creates a misspelled plural.

Task Overview (105 total minutes):

Title: Starting Your Own Vegetable Garden

Part 1 (35 minutes):

Before writing and delivering an opinion speech, students will be introduced to the topic through watching a short video, reading one informative text, taking notes on these sources. They will then respond to several questions addressing the research skills of analyzing and evaluating information.

Part 2 (70 minutes):

Finally, students will work individually to compose and orally deliver a short speech about the vegetable presented in the article that will grow best in the area where they live, referring to details from the video or the text. Students will present the speech aloud. Students may also present supplemental materials they create to enhance their presentation.

Scorable Products: Student responses to the research questions and the speech will be scored.

Teacher preparation / Resource requirements

The teacher should ensure that sufficient blank paper and writing utensils are available for student note taking. Teacher should conduct standard preparation, registration, etc., for computer based testing. The testing software will include access to spell check.

Teacher Directions:

Students are given the text, research, and any additional information about the speech.

Part 1 (35 minutes)

- Initiate the online testing session.
- Alert the students when 15 minutes have elapsed.
- Alert the students when there are 5 minutes remaining in the part 1.

Stretch Break*Part 2 (70 minutes)

- Initiate the testing part 2.
- Allow students to access the sources and their answers to the constructed response questions presented in part 1. They will not be allowed to change their answers.
- Alert the students when 20 minutes have elapsed.
- After students have been working for 60 minutes, alert them that there are 10 minutes left.
- Close the testing session.
- Direct students to deliver their presentations.

Pre-Task Activity:

There are no specific pre-task activities to be conducted.

Time Requirements:

The Performance Task will take 105 minutes in one session.

Student Directions:

Part 1 (35 minutes)

Your assignment:

You will watch a video and read one article, taking notes on these sources and answering three questions about the sources. You will then prepare and deliver an oral presentation about which vegetable you would chose to grow in your garden.

Steps you will be following:

In order to plan, compose, and give your speech, you will do all of the following:

- 1) Watch the video and then read one article.
- 2) Answer three questions about the sources.
- 3) Plan and deliver your presentation.

Directions for beginning:

You will now watch a video and read one article. Take notes because you may want to refer back to your notes while writing your essay. You can refer back to any of the sources as often as you like.

(video 1)

(article 1)

Questions

Use your remaining time to answer the questions below. Your answers to these questions will be scored. Also, they will help you think about the sources you've read and viewed, which should help you write your presentation. You may click on the appropriate buttons to refer back to the sources when you think it would be helpful. You may also refer to your notes. Answer the questions in the spaces provided below them.

1. What is one detail about growing vegetables that appears in both the video and the article?
2. Which ideas from the video and the article are things gardeners should consider when planning which vegetables to grow? Select as many as apply.
  - A. space available to grow vegetables
  - B. number of seeds available per plant
  - C. climate where the garden will be grown
  - D. history of the vegetables that will grow
  - E. the amount of sunlight the plant will get
  - F. whether the seeds will be planted indoors or outdoors
  - G. whether other people like to eat vegetables
3. Read this statement: "Vegetables are the building blocks for a healthful diet." Do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer using evidence from the video or the text to support your opinion.

Part 2 (70 minutes)

You will now have 70 minutes to review your notes and sources, plan, draft, and deliver your speech. While you may use your notes and refer to the sources, you must work on your own. You may also refer to the answers you wrote to earlier questions, but you cannot change those answers. Now read your assignment and the information about how your speech will be scored, and then begin your work.

Your assignment:

You have watched one short video and read one informational article about growing a vegetable garden. Consider what is needed in order to grow vegetables successfully. Now, choose one of the vegetables from the article and prepare a speech about which one would grow best where you live. You will write a draft of a speech and create any supplementary materials you may need for your presentation. Support your opinion with details from the sources you have read and viewed.

How your speech will be scored: The people scoring your speech will be assigning scores for

- 1. Focus—how well your speech clearly introduces and communicates your ideas
- 2. Organization – how well your ideas flow from the opening to the conclusion and how well you stay on topic throughout the speech
- 3. Elaboration of Evidence – how well you use sources, facts, and details as evidence
- 4. Language and Vocabulary – how well you effectively express ideas using precise language that is appropriate for your audience and purpose
- 5. Presentation – how well your speech is presented, including eye contact, pronunciation, and awareness of audience and the use of visual/graphics/audio enhancements appropriate to your message

Now begin work on your speech. Manage your time carefully so that you can:

- plan your speech
- write your speech
- present your speech

Word-processing tools are available to you.
