Our Story

Teachers and staff at Nuuanu Elementary believe all children can and will learn and succeed when given rigorous and relevant instructions, proper guidance and a nurturing environment. The school helps children develop their academic knowledge, behavioral, social skills and attitudes in order to prepare them to live as contributing citizens in a rapidly changing world.

Nuuanu Elementary offers language arts enrichment for gifted and talented children, computer and technology education, special education, math and remedial reading help, online reading, math and limited English proficiency services. Students also have the opportunity to participate in service learning projects such as Student Council, Peer Mediation, Technology Club, Lego Robotics and Junior Police Officers. Afterschool programs include arts and craft, chorus, dancing, golf, tennis and Lego building activities.

Nuuanu Elementary receives support from the School Community Council, the Parent Community Networking Center, and parent teacher organization, Aikane O Nuuanu.

How do you measure how well a school is doing? In our estimation, it's more than scores on high-stakes tests. Schools should show that they are supporting children along the educational pipeline toward college, career, and community readiness. Are our students attending school? Are they graduating? Are they going to college? And how successfully are schools reducing the achievement gap between high-needs and non-high needs students?

The Strive HI Performance System was designed to account for these factors in student success. Initially created in 2013 by a U.S. Department of Education waiver from certain aspects of the former No Child Left Behind Act, Strive HI has been refocused by the goals and priorities of the 2017-2020 Department of Education and Board of Education Strategic Plan, the governing document for the public education system.
